Principal's Comment: Matariki : Te Tau Hou Maori

Matariki is a time to gather with family and friends to reflect on the past, celebrate the present, and plan for the future. This year we are celebrating as a school and with our wider community. Join us on Friday 29th June to celebrate Matariki The Maori New Year with a hangi.

We are in the middle of mid year assessments, culminating in Parent Conferences. These will run over 2 nights and is the time to discuss your child's progress and set new learning goals for the rest of 2018.

Linda Larsen, Principal

MATARIKI CELEBRATIONS:

- * Room 9 kapa haka children will be joining the Kingswood Resthome on Thursday 28th June
- * The school Matariki hangi is on Friday 29th June.
- * Matariki kapa haka celebration at Matamata College on Tuesday 3rd July.

MATARIKI HANGI FRIDAY 29TH JUNE:

To celebrate Matariki we are having a hangi and need beef, mutton, pork, spuds, pumpkin and kumara. Any donations appreciated!

SCHOOL BURGLARY:

Our school was broken into over the weekend and a small amount of cash taken. To help us reduce the risk of future incidents please consider using online banking wherever possible – thank you.

TE POI SCHOOL COOK BOOKS:

Due to huge demand we have done a small rerun of our school cookbook. Only $20 at the school office but be in quick.

HOCKEY: Players of the Day:

Seniors - Troy P, Tiggers – Noah H,
Tornadoes – Jacob W.
Juniors will practice Friday lunchtime.

NETBALL: Te Poi Shooting Stars had a massive game on Thursday playing the current 2nd placed team in their grade.

Although the scorecard does not record a win for them, they all played hard and fair and came away from the game knowing that they gave a 100% team effort - their red faces proved that.

Subway Player of the Day - Ella L.

Te Poi Shooting Stars - you ROCK!
