Principal's Comment:

*Me Ako Tonu
Keep Learning*

Regular attendance is crucial for a child's academic success and overall development. Arriving well before 9:00am allows students to settle in, prepare for the day, and engage in play, which is essential for social development and cognitive growth. Missing school can disrupt learning and impact a child's progress. By being present and punctual, students benefit from consistent learning, build relationships with others, and establish good habits. Encouraging regular attendance builds a strong foundation for a successful future. "80% of success is turning up." Albert Einstein

School News:

Assembly this week

Room 3 and Whaea Lynley's group will be sharing their learning

Te Reo Māori Learning

Are you interested in learning Te Reo Māori?

Whaea Tarns and Matua Leo will be starting after school sessions, on a Thursday, for one hour. Your children are welcome to join in - or play at school while we learn. Please register your interest so we can organise enough biscuits!

Hockey Training

This week the Junior team will train on Wednesday lunchtime and the Senior team on Friday lunchtime.
