Principal's Comment:

Welcome back to Miss Clark, returning from her intrepid journey to Nepal. Last week we sadly farewelled 3 school families, Cristina and Cristelle Marinas, Zeth Horne-Johnson and Brooklyn and Sadie Mexted. If you know of any new families in the area, tell them about our school as we would appreciate some new enrolments.

Last week I had the opportunity to visit 2 Auckland Schools working with the new digital technologies curriculum. Both schools had similar issues as us with understanding how to integrate coding and computational thinking into our class programmes. One was running Friday whanau sessions, something we have previously done, so it inspired us to re-introduce Fun Fridays. Starting this week, we will be mixing everyone up and experiencing 'new things' with a different teacher each Friday between 11am and 12pm.
