Principal's Comment:

*Waiho i te toipoto. Koa i te toiroa.
Let us keep close together, not wide apart*

Diversity, being unique and even a little quirky is what we celebrate and value at Te Poi School. Everyone has a side of them that is a little different from everyone else. Autism awareness day is about understanding uniqueness, being aware of what autism is, and learning how to support each other.

This term our schoolwide focus has been on building relationships, learning to get along with others and knowing ourselves and others. I have seen our school community pull together to support each other over this difficult term. Ngā mihi nui – thank you everyone. What an amazing community to be part of.

Kia haumaruru te noho - Stay safe and well.
