Principal's Comment:

*E parū i te tinana, e mā i te wai.
E parū i te aroha, ka mau tonu e
If you're touched by mud, you can wash it off. If you're touched by aroha, it lasts always*

Last week our school hosted Brent and Tanya Coakwell from Canada and our students made a fantastic impression on them. Their respectful and engaging manner highlighted our strong values and showcased the positive culture we foster. Our Kapa Haka performance was a huge hit. The students put on an amazing show with so much energy, enthusiasm and skill, it was truly impressive. Their hard work paid off and it was a proud moment for everyone involved. These highlights are a great reminder of what a special place our school is. Thank you for your ongoing support and for helping make moments like these possible
